Now available for review

Orlando, FL, Jul 24, 2019 - Kyle Biery announces the publication of his first collection of stories, CIRCUITRY AND SOULS. It is available at Smashwords.com for $2.

The first story in this collection is "Transcendence." In it, detectives Calum and Jackal track Calum's brother Desmond who seeks to illegally ascend beyond the limits of humanity by transferring his soul to an android of his own design. They discover Desmond's intentions through holographic security recordings and a recording left by Desmond after he succeeds.

"Stormy Road" follow a cyberized traveler named Martin. In the story, Martin walks on his own down a road battered by tornados. Just before a major storm, the cyborg encounters a generous old man who invites him to take shelter with him in his old tank of a truck he calls Old Bess.

In "Repairs and Debates," Jacob begins his repairs on his mechanical war machine named Rin. In the midst of this, Jacob and Rin discuss her continued participation in their town's combat pits which keep their town in order. After revealing his view of her as his daughter, Rin agrees to Jacob's words when he suggests that they move to the West Coast.

Kyle Biery is a student studying Creative Writing for Entertainment at Full Sail University who has expressed interest in video game writing. Two of his science fiction and fantasy stories have appeared in Scarlet Leaf Review. He has traveled to many different parts of the Far East and has found influence in their cultures.

Smashwords.com is an online publishing service that provides ISBNs to new writers to assist in mass distribution. In addition to helping new writers get their books out onto the online market, they convert new submissions so that they can be read on any form of e-reader, ranging from desktop to Amazon Kindle. To assist the customer in locating the perfect book for them, Smashwords.com also provides tags writers can assign to their work so that they can better target their niche markets.
